

WEAFRI WELL SERVICES COMPANY LIMITED

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

WEAFRI is committed to ensuring implementation of safe operating methods and procedures in Oil Well Services and Pipeline Maintenance activities in such a manner that the HEALTH and SAFETY of its employees, customers' representatives and third parties are safeguarded from injury and illness. The Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) policy also ensures that no sick member of staff is allowed to work at our locations or base facilities through the following;

- Compliance to applicable occupational health and safety legal and other requirements.
- Provision of resources and availability of relevant occupational health services provider in order to address the fitness of the employees for the assigned task.
- Development of occupational health and safety programme in all work activities and encouraging active participation by all employees and the management team.
- Promotion of healthy work environment and Specific Health Surveillance Program with clear objective for reduction and prevention of main hazards at work that lead to severe occupational diseases and sicknesses.
- Provision of guidance on Work Practices and Promotion of health education to ensure sustainable healthy lifestyle among the employees.
- Development of reliable information for establishment and recognition of priorities in order to make decisions on occupational health and safety practices.
- Continually review and improve in occupational health & safety management and performance in order to ensure that it remains relevant and appropriate to the system.

Dated: 1st September, 2016.

.....
Cletus Onyekwere
(Managing Director)